

Creativformat

about

At CreativFormat it is not enough just to capture a moment in time, but to give those moments a life of their own. Our pursuit of knowledge feeds our desire to find the exceptional in every frame. We have every capability that is needed to capture the essence of what our clients want to express. From each grain of sand, to sophisticated lifestyle, no element will ever be seen as ordinary through the eyes of our cameras.

Photography

We love what we do here at creativformat.
Every frame of it.

We specialize on photographing all things and giving them a unique tone of their own. With our expertise in this area we have set a new tone for incredible imagery and really bringing to life the lifestyles, the surroundings, the people and all the things that make each place special.

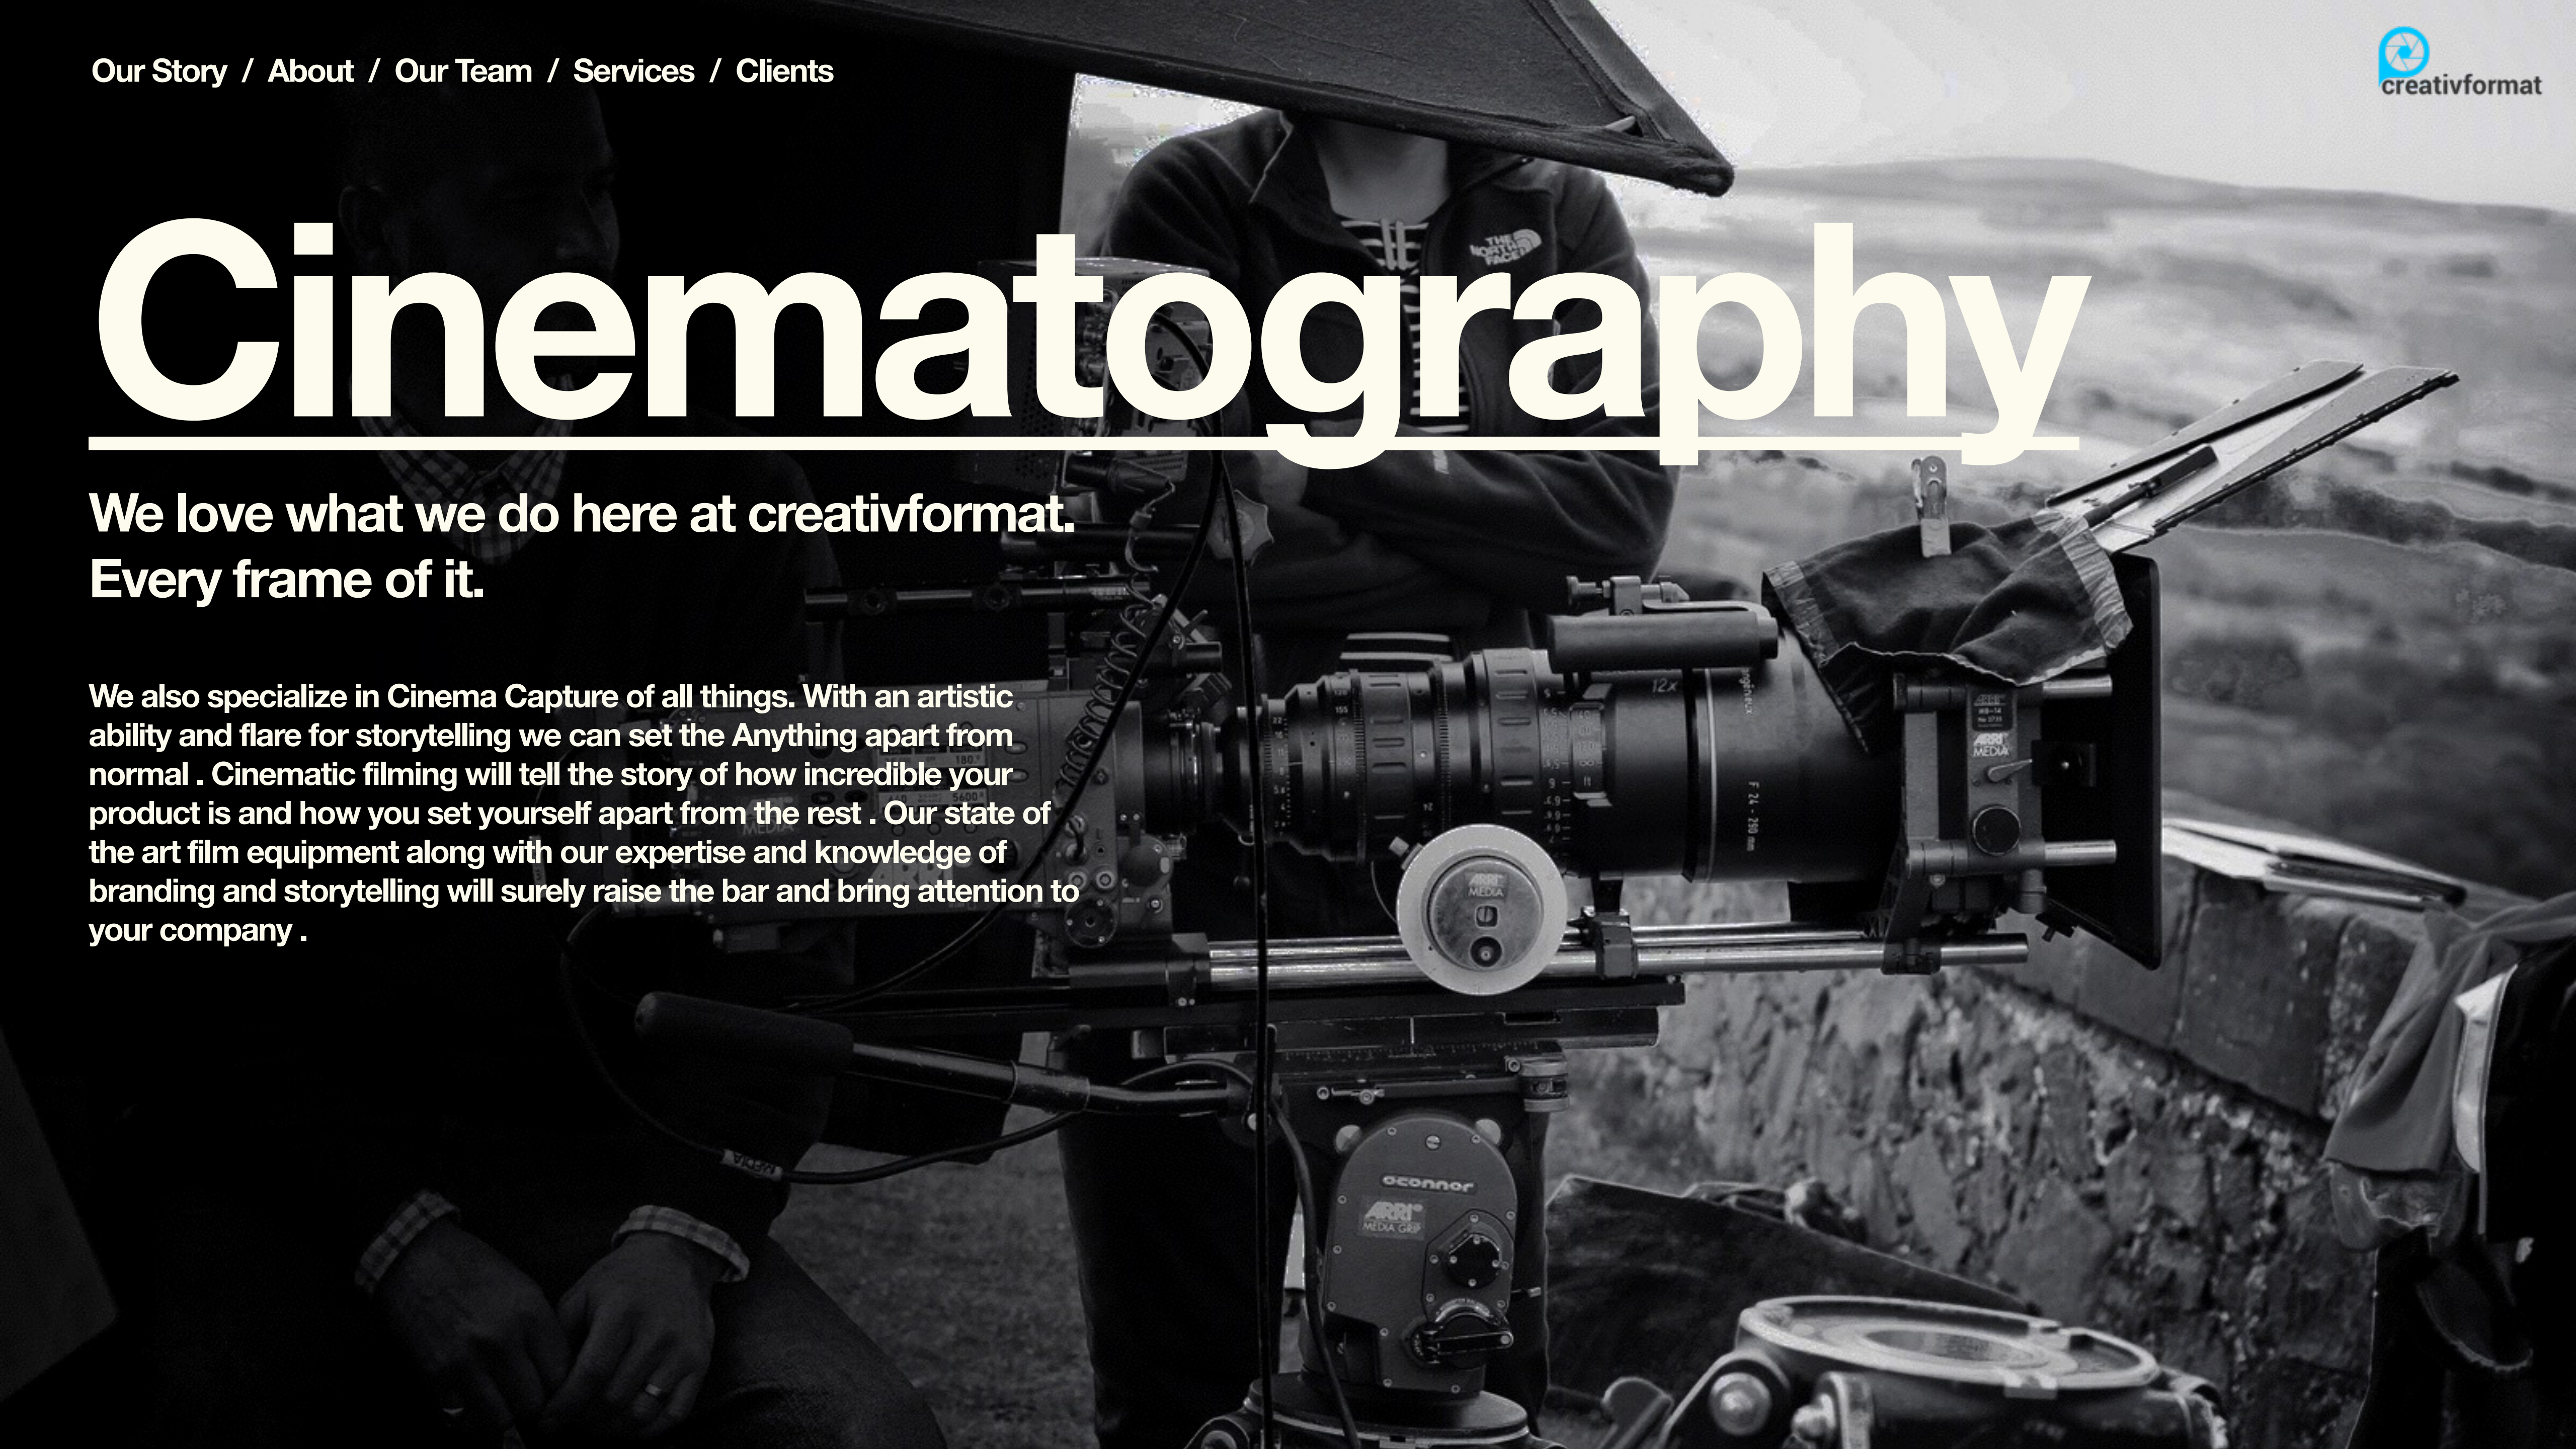

We go to every location and asses the surroundings , we get a unique perspective on how obtain the most fascinating shots. We then capture each place as a unique entity of its own, its lifestyle, its beauty, the surroundings and more.

Cinematography

We love what we do here at creativformat.
Every frame of it.

We also specialize in Cinema Capture of all things. With an artistic ability and flare for storytelling we can set the Anything apart from normal . Cinematic filming will tell the story of how incredible your product is and how you set yourself apart from the rest . Our state of the art film equipment along with our expertise and knowledge of branding and storytelling will surely raise the bar and bring attention to your company .

Aerial

We love what we do here at creativformat.
Every turn of the props.

With our State of the art Ariel Drones and Drone Cameras we can capture the amazing birds-eye views of any scenery. We can fly and capture everything you need from the sky and take you on a journey over any place and anywhere.

Our Team

Creavitivformat is full of unique people.

Steven Perry

His unique appreciation for life has inspired his unique outlook on photography. It is not enough to capture a moment in time, but to give those moments a life of their own. The constant pursuit of knowledge feeds his desire to find the exceptional in every frame. Twenty three years ago he picked up his first camera and over the years he has come to realize that a camera is not just a tool of his trade but an extension of who he is. The work is not just art; it is a partnership between meticulous craftsmanship and passion. The daily activities of his life are never passed by without the careful consideration of every detail.

Tim Stevenson

His innovation and creative direction comes from the entertainment business he has been apart of for over twenty years. He has partnered up with Steven Perry as director of CreativFormat and together they have created an brand that can will be untouchable on all arenas. Tim's direction in capturing artists, lifestyles, action sports, and storytelling is a perfect compliment to Steven's incredible experience in photographing and cinematography for capturing essence of anything and everywhere he points his camera

Our Clients

Are our most important asset.
Here's who we work with.

Thank you

